THE COMMUNITY SAFETY AND POLICING ACT, 2019 (CSPA)

The Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 (CSPA) received Royal Assent on March 26, 2019 as part of the Comprehensive Ontario Police Services Act 2019, however its recommendation date has not been determined yet. The Ministry is currently working towards an in-force time frame of 2022.

When the CSPA comes into force it will replace the current Police Services Act (1990). Until then, the Police Services Act remains in force.

There are approximately 50-70 matters for regulation that need to be developed in order to bring the CSPA into force. The Ministry hosts regular engagement tables with policing communities and First Nation partners to develop regulations to bring the CSPA into force.

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, engagement was temporarily put on hold, but resumed in October 2020. To date, several virtual meetings have been held.

The engagement tables include representation from;

The policing sector that represents front line officers, Chiefs of Police, the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP), Police Service Boards, municipalities and Indigenous policing partners;

The community and social services that represent Indigenous, addictions and mental health, municipalities, legal clinics, civil liberties and anti-racism partners;

and

First Nation Police Services and Police Service Boards. The Ministry also continues with First Nations communities to discuss gaps/challenges and the choices for policing models under the CSPA.

In addition to the regular engagement tables, the Ministry convenes technical tables of regulation-specific issues on an as needed basis to seek technical input into the regulation development from subject matter experts.

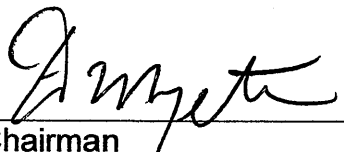

The Ministry also engages the Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO) Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) Table, as appropriate, to provide updates on key regulatory matters. Updates are also provided to Toronto-Ontario Cooperation and Consultation Agreement (TOCCA) on key regulatory matters, where appropriate.
